FOI Request regarding: PCC meeting with members of the public

Request received: 16-01-2018

Responded: 12-02-2018

Q. Has the PCC ever met with members of the public over any concerns they have, where they've expressed a desire to have a direct conversation.

A. The PCC has had 21 meetings, with 25 members of the public in regards to specific concerns they have raised.

The response is for PCC Philip Seccombe's term of Office (from May 2016 to date). The response is only in relation to meetings with members of the public and does not include all the events, forums and public meetings where PCC Seccombe meets with, listens to and answers issues, concerns or questions members of the public, elected members and stakeholders may raise. The response only relates to actual meetings and does not include any telephone, email or written communication PCC Seccombe has provided during his term of office.
