

Unwanted Mail, Calls & Email

Unwanted mail, calls & emails may also be called junk, spam or unsolicited correspondence.

Receiving any of these can make you feel:

Confused

Upset

Angry

Frightened

Tricked

It can also mean:

You have more rubbish

Someone is trying to get your money

Someone could be stealing your personal info or identity

Someone is selling you something you don't want

Other things we can do include:

Company opt out

We can tell any company that we want to opt out of all marketing and advertising from them.

We can do this by phone, in person, by email or via the internet

Spam and Junk

In our email account we can mark unwanted email as Spam or Junk.

This moves unwanted emails away from our email Inbox
