1. Overarching Corporate Governance

1.1 Introduction

- 1.1.1 The purpose of this statement is to give clarity to the way the two organisations, Police and Crime Commissioner (PCC) and Chief Constable, will be governed both jointly and separately, to do business in the right way, for the right reason at the right time.
- 1.1.2 This framework will ensure that the primary objectives of the PCC and Chief Constable will be observed – these include
- a To provide a more efficient and effective policing service in Warwickshire
 - b To enhance capability and capacity
 - c To be more resilient and flexible in the use of skilled specialist staff
 - d To reduce and remove any duplication of roles and resources
 - e To seek opportunities to maximise financial savings

1.2 Context

- 1.2.1 The principal statutory framework within which the organisations will operate is:
- Police Reform and Social Responsibility Act 2011 (PRSRA11, the Act)
 - Policing Protocol Order 2011 (the Protocol)
 - Policing and Crime Act 2017
 - Financial Management Code of Practice
 - Strategic Policing Requirement
- 1.2.2 This framework creates a public sector relationship, taking into account the functions and responsibilities of the single elected commissioner and the Chief Constable with due regard to the operational independence of the Chief Constable.

1.3 Principles

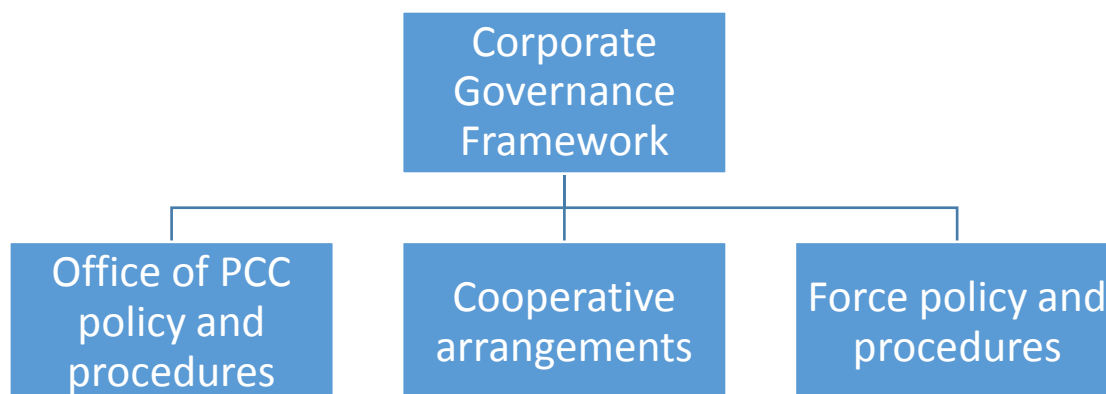

- 1.3.1 The core principles adopted by both organisations are those highlighted by the good governance standard for public services:
- Focus on outcomes for local people,
 - Clarity of roles, functions and responsibilities
 - Promotion of values and demonstrating these through behaviour,
 - Informed, transparent decisions & managing risk,
 - Developing capacity and capability
 - Engaging with local people to ensure robust accountability.

The principles of good decision making (set out in the PCC Decision Making Policy) also apply.

1.4 Instruments of governance

- 1.4.1 The corporate governance framework by which both organisations will be governed, both jointly and separately will consist of:
- the statutory framework and local policy, setting out the overarching summary,
 - how the core principles will be implemented,
 - the parameters within which the organisations will conduct their business,
 - Separate policy and procedures for each corporation sole, with protocols where they operate jointly.
 - Cooperative arrangements by which the Police and Crime Commissioner and the Chief Constable support the exercise of each other's functions including the Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) agreed between the PCC and the Chief Constable

1.5 Leadership

- 1.5.1 The Police and Crime Commissioner and Chief Constable will review the framework on an annual basis and ensure compliance.
- 1.5.2 The Police and Crime Commissioner will ensure compliance with this Corporate Governance Framework, holding the Chief Constable to account for the operational effectiveness and efficiency of the Force.

1.6 Record of Decisions

- 1.6.1 Any significant decision of the Police and Crime Commissioner or of the Deputy Police and Crime Commissioner (if and where applicable) shall be set out in a Decision Notice and shall be published on the Police and Crime Commissioner's website, unless it is exempt from publication.
- 1.6.2 In determining the extent of information to be published the principles of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 will be applied.
- 1.6.3 The Police and Crime Commissioner has published a Decision Making Policy document that will set out the framework and principles for decision making, and the processes for ensuring decisions are made by the right people in the right way and at the right level within the organisation. It will set out which decisions should be formally recorded and published.
- 1.6.4 The Police and Crime Commissioner shall establish a Scheme of Delegation which sets out any delegations of the Police and Crime Commissioner's powers. The scheme may permit the sub-delegation of powers but any such sub-delegation shall be recorded in the Scheme of Delegation. The Police and Crime Commissioner may prohibit, vary or make any sub-delegation subject to conditions and limitations.

2. Corporate Governance Mechanisms

2.1 Introduction

- 2.1.1 This section sets out how the Police and Crime Commissioner and the Chief Constable conduct their organisations both jointly and separately in accordance with policy contained within the overarching statement of corporate governance. It will do this by highlighting the key enablers for ensuring good governance.

2.2 Context

- 2.2.1 This section sets out how the organisations are conducted, using the International Framework for good governance in the Public Sector¹ as the structure for setting out the statutory framework and local arrangements.

2.3 Corporate governance mechanisms

- 2.3.1 Behaving with integrity, demonstrating strong commitment to ethical values, and respecting the rule of law.

The Act² sets out the functions of the Police and Crime Commissioner and Chief Constable and the policing protocol³ sets out how these functions will be undertaken to achieve the outcomes of the police and crime plan.

The Act requires the Police and Crime Commissioner to have a Chief Executive and Chief Finance Officer⁴ (the Treasurer). The Chief Executive will be the head of paid service and undertake the responsibilities of monitoring officer⁵.

The Act requires the Chief Constable to appoint a Chief Finance Officer⁶ (the Director of Finance).

The financial management code of practice and statements of roles⁷ set out the responsibilities of Chief Finance Officers for both the Police and Crime Commissioner and the Chief Constable, and of the Chief Executive.

The scheme of delegation highlights the parameters for key roles in the organisations including delegations or consents from the Police and Crime Commissioner and Chief Constable, financial regulations and contracts.

The decision making policy sets out the framework and principles for decision making, and the processes for ensuring decisions are made by the right people in the right way and at the right level within the organisation. It sets out which decisions will be formally recorded and published.

Officers, police staff and staff of the Office of Police and Crime Commissioner will operate within:

- Office of the Police and Crime Commissioner and Police Force policies and procedures,

⁷ Financial Management Code of Practice for the Police, s4, CIPFA Statement on the Role of Chief Finance Officers, APACE Statement on the Role of the Chief Executive

- corporate governance framework,
- conduct regulations and codes of conduct.

The Policing Protocol 2011 requires all parties to abide by the seven principles of public life⁸ and these will be central to the conduct and behaviour of all. Those principles are:

Selflessness Holders of public office should act solely in terms of the public interest.

Integrity Holders of public office must avoid placing themselves under any obligation to people or organisations that might try inappropriately to influence them in their work. They should not act or take decisions in order to gain financial or other material benefits for themselves, their family, or their friends. They must declare and resolve any interests and relationships.

Objectivity Holders of public office must act and take decisions impartially, fairly and on merit, using the best evidence and without discrimination or bias.

Accountability Holders of public office are accountable to the public for their decisions and actions and must submit themselves to the scrutiny necessary to ensure this.

Openness Holders of public office should act and take decisions in an open and transparent manner. Information should not be withheld from the public unless there are clear and lawful reasons for so doing.

Honesty Holders of public office should be truthful.

Leadership Holders of public office should exhibit these principles in their own behaviour. They should actively promote and robustly support the principles and be willing to challenge poor behaviour wherever it occurs.

The Code of Ethics combines these values with others espoused in policing, and sets and provides a framework for upholding high standards of conduct and behaviour. It adds two further principles:

Fairness Holders of public office should treat people fairly.

Respect Holders of public office should treat everyone with respect.

The Protocol also highlights the expectation that the relationship between all parties will be based upon the principles of goodwill, professionalism, openness and trust.

The Financial Management Code of Practice requires the Police and Crime Commissioner and Chief Constable to ensure that the good governance principles are embedded in the way the organisations operate.

2.3.2 Ensuring openness and comprehensive stakeholder engagement

The communication and community engagement strategies set out how the Police and Crime Commissioner and Chief Constable will ensure that local people are involved in decision making.

The publication scheme establishes the means by which information relating to

⁸ Standards in Public Life, 2005 as amended by the 14th report of the Committee on Standards in Public Life decisions will be made available to local people, with those of greater public interest receiving the highest level of prominence, except where operational and legal constraints exist.

The Police and Crime Panel is a check and balance on the Police and Crime Commissioner through reviewing or scrutinising their decisions. It is made up primarily of Councillors nominated from each of the local authorities and meet in public as well as a number of independently sought members. The Panel has particular responsibilities to scrutinise decisions about precept setting, the issue of the Police and Crime Plan, and the appointment and dismissal of the Chief Constable and other senior personnel. The Police and Crime panel have two sub-groups who have responsibility for considering budget and performance issues in more detail and meet approximately 4 times per year.

2.3.3 Defining Outcomes in terms of sustainable economic, social and environmental benefits

The Police and Crime Commissioner has issued a Police and Crime Plan. It outlines the police and crime objectives and the strategic direction for the policing of the Force area.

Within that the Police Force has defined their vision as Protecting people from harm. The Policing priorities are established around putting victims and survivors first, ensuring effective and efficient service, protecting all from harm, particularly those that are vulnerable, and preventing and reducing crime with their approach and outcomes clearly set out.

Collaboration agreements set out those areas of business to be undertaken jointly with other Forces, Fire and Rescue Services and Local Policing Bodies, whether to reduce cost, increase efficiency or increase capability to protect local people.

A Medium Term Financial Plan (MTFP) has been developed to support delivery of the Police and Crime Plan, including the capital programme.

The Police and Crime Commissioner has developed a Commissioning intentions document for services its commissions through the OPCC and operates this alongside the annual grant award process. Both processes ensure the right interventions are in place to achieve the intended outcomes from the extensive services in place across Warwickshire for helping and supporting victims in addition to the other priorities and objectives identified in the Police and Crime Plan.

2.3.4 Determining the interventions necessary to optimise the achievement of the intended outcomes

The national decision model⁹ is applied to spontaneous incidents or planned operations, by officers and staff within the Force as individuals or teams, and to both operational and non-operational situations. These are applied in the context of the Force values of public service, impartiality, integrity and transparency. The forces' overriding ambition is to be great at protecting the most vulnerable and to place the health and wellbeing of its staff and officers at the fore.

The Police and Crime Commissioner's Police and Crime Plan outlines the police and crime objectives (outcomes) and the strategic direction for the policing and supporting services of the Force area.

⁹ National Decision Model (NDM) for the Police Service, College of Policing

2.3.5 Developing the entity's capacity, including the capability of its leadership and the individuals within it

The organisations' training strategies set the climate for continued development of individuals. The respective performance development review processes will ensure that these strategies are turned into reality for officers and members of staff.

This principle is also included within the Police and Crime Plan.

2.3.6 Managing risks and performance through robust internal control and strong public financial management

A joint independent audit and standards committee will operate in line with Chartered Institute of Public Finance and Accountancy (CIPFA) guidance and within the guidance of the Financial Management Code of Practice¹⁰.

The scheme of delegation highlights the parameters for decision making, including the delegations, consents, financial limits for specific matters and for contracts.

The risk management register establishes how risk is managed throughout the various elements of corporate governance of the organisations, whether operating solely or jointly.

2.3.7 Implementing good practices in transparency, reporting, and audit, to deliver effective accountability

The policing protocol¹¹ highlights that the Police and Crime Commissioner is accountable to local people and draws on this mandate to set and shape the strategic objectives for the force area in consultation with the Chief Constable.

The Police and Crime Plan sets out what the strategic direction and priorities are and how they will be delivered.

To complement this the consultation and engagement strategy sets out how local people will be involved with the Police and Crime Commissioner and the media communications policy and local policing communications toolkit outline the arrangements for engagement with the Chief Constable to ensure they are part of decision making, accountability and future direction.

The Police and Crime Commissioner and Chief Constable will continue to develop their arrangements for effective engagement with key stakeholders, ensuring that where appropriate they remain closely involved in decision making, accountability and future direction.

3. Scheme of Delegation

3.1 Introduction

The first section details the key roles of the Police and Crime Commissioner, Chief Executive, the Treasurer, Chief Constable and the Director of Finance and of those who support them.

The second section describes the strategies, arrangements, instruments and controls adopted to ensure good governance in the organisations.

This section provides a framework which ensures the business is carried out efficiently, ensuring that decisions are not unnecessarily delayed. It forms part of the overall corporate governance framework of the two organisations. It should be read in the context of the previous two sections.

This Scheme sets out the delegations by the Police and Crime Commissioner to the Chief Executive, other members of their staff and Police staff. It sets out the delegations by the Chief Constable to their officers and staff. It includes other instruments such as the financial regulations.

Statutory Officers are the Chief Executive (who is also the Monitoring Officer), Chief Constable, Deputy Chief Constable, Treasurer, and Director of Finance. This Scheme of Corporate Governance aims to clarify those powers which, for the benefit of good business practice, are given to the statutory officers. The Police and Crime Commissioner may limit and/or withdraw delegation, as may the Chief Constable in relation to their delegations. Similarly, any sub-delegations by Statutory Officers may be limited or withdrawn by those Statutory Officers.

The Police and Crime Commissioner may impose reporting arrangements on any authorised powers.

Powers are given to the Chief Constable by laws, orders, rules or regulations. Also, national conditions of employment give powers to the Police and Crime Commissioner, the Chief Constable and, in the case of police regulations, the Secretary of State for the Home Office.

The powers given to officers and staff should be exercised in line with these delegations, the law, financial regulations, and also policies, procedures, plans, strategies and budgets.

Whilst the Chief Constable has the statutory power to enter into contracts for goods and services with the consent of the Police and Crime Commissioner, in order to simplify systems of internal control, contracts will continue to be issued in the name of the Police and Crime Commissioner. Consequently, no consent framework is required. This does not preclude the Police and Crime Commissioner from providing consent to the Chief Constable to enter into contracts for goods and services on a case by case basis, with such consent to be evidenced in writing.

This Scheme of Delegation does not identify all the statutory duties which are contained in specific laws and regulations.

3.2 Key Role of the Police and Crime Commissioner

- 3.2.1 The Police and Crime Commissioner is the legal contracting body who owns all the assets and liabilities, and with responsibility for the financial administration of their office and the Police Fund, including all borrowing.

- 3.2.2 The Police and Crime Commissioner will receive all funding, including the government grant and precept, and other sources of income, related to policing and crime reduction. By law all funding for the Police Force must come via the Police and Crime Commissioner. How this money is allocated is for the Police and Crime Commissioner to decide in consultation with the Chief Constable, or in accordance with any grant terms and conditions.
- 3.2.3 The Police and Crime Panel is a check and balance on the Police and Crime Commissioner through reviewing or scrutinising their decisions, but not those of the Chief Constable.
- 3.2.4 The Police and Crime Commissioner is responsible for handling complaints and conduct matters in relation to the Chief Constable and staff of the Office of the Police and Crime Commissioner and monitoring complaints against officers and staff of the Police Force. Since the 1 February 2020 the PCC has been responsible for appeals under the police complaints system, called complaints reviews. Both organisations are responsible for complying with the legitimate requirements of the Independent Office of Police Conduct.

3.3 General principles of delegation

- 3.3.1 The Police and Crime Commissioner and Chief Constable expect anyone proposing to exercise a delegation or an authorisation under this scheme to draw to the attention of the Police and Crime Commissioner any issue which is likely to be regarded by the Police and Crime Commissioner as novel, contentious, repercussive or likely to be politically sensitive before exercising such powers.
- 3.3.2 The Police and Crime Commissioner is ultimately accountable for the Police Fund. Before any financial or legal liability affecting the Police Fund that the Police and Crime Commissioner might reasonably regard as novel, contentious, repercussive or politically sensitive is incurred, prior written approval must be obtained from the Police and Crime Commissioner.
- 3.3.3 The Police and Crime Commissioner must not restrict the operational independence of the police force and the Chief Constable who leads it¹². In exercising their functions the Chief Constable must have regard to the Police and Crime Plan issued by the Police and Crime Commissioner¹³.
- 3.3.4 To enable the Police and Crime Commissioner to exercise the functions of their office effectively they will need access to information, and officers and staff within their force area. This access must not be unreasonably withheld or obstructed by the Chief Constable, or restrict the Chief Constable's direction and control of the force¹⁴.
- 3.3.5 The Police and Crime Commissioner has wider responsibilities than those solely relating to the police force and these are referred to elsewhere in this Corporate Governance Framework.

¹² Policing Protocol Order 2011, art18

¹³ PRSRA11 s8(2)

¹⁴ PRSRA11 ss2(5) and 36

- 3.3.6 Delegations are set out in this scheme. The Police and Crime Commissioner and Chief Constable may require at any time that a specific matter is referred to them for a decision and not dealt with under powers of delegation.
- 3.3.7 Delegations may only be exercised subject to:-
- a) compliance with the corporate governance framework.
 - b) provision for any relevant expenditure being included in the approved budget.
- 3.3.8 These arrangements delegate powers and duties within broad functional descriptions and include powers and duties under all legislation present and future within those descriptions and all powers and duties incidental to that legislation. The scheme does not attempt to list all matters which form part of everyday management responsibilities.
- 3.3.9 Giving delegation under this scheme does not prevent an officer or member of staff from referring the matter to the Police and Crime Commissioner or Chief Constable for a decision or guidance if the officer or member of staff thinks this is appropriate (for example, because of sensitive issues or any matter which may have a significant financial implication – see paragraph 3.3.1).
- 3.3.10 When a statutory officer is considering a matter that also falls within another statutory officer's area of responsibility, they should consult the other statutory officer before authorising the action.
- 3.3.11 All decisions statutory officers make under delegated authority given to them by the Police and Crime Commissioner or Chief Constable must be recorded and published in accordance with the Decision Making principles.
- 3.3.12 In this document, references made to the statutory officers include officers authorised by them to act on their behalf.
- 3.3.13 The statutory officers are responsible for making sure that members of staff they supervise know about the provisions and obligations of the Corporate Governance Framework.
- 3.3.14 The persons appointed as the Chief Executive (who is also the Monitoring Officer) and the Chief Finance Officers have statutory powers and duties relating to their positions, and therefore do not rely on matters being delegated to them to carry these out.
- 3.3.15 The Scheme of Delegation provides a member of staff with the legal power to carry out those functions of the Police and Crime Commissioner and Chief Constable that are capable of being delegated. In carrying out these functions the member of staff must comply with all other statutory and regulatory requirements and relevant professional guidance including:
- Police Reform and Social Responsibility Act 2011 and other relevant legislation issued under the Act.
 - Policing Protocol Order 2011
 - Financial Regulations
 - Financial Management Code of Practice
 - CIPFA Statement on the role of the Chief Finance Officer in public service organisations
 - Agen
 - Contract Regulations
 - Public Procurement Regulations

- The Police and Crime Commissioner's Corporate Governance framework
- The Police and Crime Commissioner's and Police Force employment policies and procedures.
- The Data Protection Act 2018 and applicable laws relating to the processing of personal data
- The Freedom of Information Act 2000
- Health and safety at work legislation and codes.

This list is not exhaustive.

3.3.16 When carrying out any functions, the Police and Crime Commissioner, Chief Constable and staff must have regard, where applicable, to the following:

- The views of the people in their policing area
- Any report or recommendation made by the Police and Crime Panel on the annual report for the previous financial year.
- The Police and Crime Plan and any guidance issued by the Secretary of State.

This list is not exhaustive.

3.3.17 The corporate governance framework, including this Scheme of Delegation, will be reviewed periodically.

3.3.18 These arrangements do not delegate any matter which by law cannot be delegated to a member of staff nor do they affect the constitutional relationship between the Police and Crime Commissioner and the Chief Constable

Delegations by the Police and Crime Commissioner

In the event that a Deputy Police and Crime Commissioner is appointed these delegations will be reviewed

3.4. Functions delegated to the Chief Executive, Office of the Police and Crime Commissioner

3.4.1. The Chief Executive is the Head of Paid Service and the Monitoring Officer of the Police and Crime Commissioner. The formal delegations, listed below, are those given to the Chief Executive.

3.4.2. As the monitoring officer of the Police and Crime Commissioner there is a statutory responsibility to manage their legal affairs as set out in section 5 Local Government and Housing Act 1989 (as amended). This statutory responsibility must be carried out personally but can be carried out by a deputy nominated by the Chief Executive in cases of absence or illness. The Head of Business Services and Assurance is the nominated deputy Monitoring Officer and Deputy Chief Executive. In the absence of the Chief Executive. If unavailable the Chief Executive will nominate an alternate.

3.4.3 In their absence the Police and Crime Commissioner delegates to the Chief Executive all of his functions, except those prohibited by law¹⁵, unless otherwise agreed. In a longer period of absence, the Police and Crime Panel will seek to appoint a temporary PCC, from the OPCC Staff. Until that appointment the Chief Executive will continue to exercise the functions of the PCC.

Urgent decisions taken must be reported to the PCC as soon as practically possible

¹⁵ s18(3)(d) and (7) PRSRA11

- 3.4.4 In the event of a significant conflict of interest arising which would preclude the Police and Crime Commissioner from exercising a function, the Police and Crime Commissioner delegates to the Chief Executive the exercise of any functions, except those prohibited by law¹⁵.

General

- 3.4.5. To prepare the Police and Crime Plan for submission to the Police and Crime Commissioner.
- 3.4.6. To provide information to the Police and Crime Panel, as reasonably required to enable the panel to carry out its functions.
- 3.4.7. To sign contracts on behalf of the Police and Crime Commissioner, irrespective of value, once they have been approved in accordance with this Corporate Governance Framework, including contracts which are required to be executed under the common seal of the Police and Crime Commissioner.
- 3.4.8. To consider whether, in consultation with the Treasurer, to provide indemnity to the Police and Crime Commissioner and to deal with or make provision to deal with other matters arising from any proceedings relating to them.
- 3.4.9. To consider and approve, in consultation with the Treasurer, provision of indemnity and/or insurance to individual staff of the Police and Crime Commissioner.
- 3.4.10 To respond to any appropriate consultations on proposals in respect of issues affecting the Police and Crime Commissioner, if necessary, after first taking the views of the Police and Crime Commissioner, Chief Constable or the Treasurer, as appropriate.
- 3.4.11 To consider, with the Police and Crime Commissioner, any complaint made against the Chief Constable, and where appropriate, to make arrangements for appointing someone to investigate the complaint.
- 3.4.12 To make arrangements for dealing with strategic matters in respect of land or buildings and structures thereon, including purchase, sale, redesign and major reconfiguration in consultation with the Police and Crime Commissioner.
- 3.4.13 To make arrangements for the support of public communications and engagement.
- 3.4.14 To make arrangements for the support to the Police and Crime Commissioner in holding the Chief Constable to account.
- 3.4.15. At the request of the Chief Constable, to exercise the power of the Police and Crime Commissioner under the Police (Property) Regulations 1997 to approve the keeping of unclaimed property if it can be used for police purposes
- 3.4.16. To be the Senior Information Risk Owner for the Office of the Police and Crime Commissioner.

Financial

- 3.4.17. The financial management responsibilities of the Chief Executive are set out in the financial regulations.
- 3.4.18. To manage the budget of the Police and Crime Commissioner's office, along with the Treasurer, particularly to:

- order goods and services and other items provided for in the revenue budget, and arrange timely payment of invoices.
- ask for and accept quotations and tenders for goods and services provided for in the revenue budget

Staff employed by the Police and Crime Commissioner

- 3.4.19. To appoint and dismiss staff employed by the Police and Crime Commissioner, in consultation with the Police and Crime Commissioner.
- 3.4.20. Paragraph 3.4.19 shall not apply to the appointment or dismissal of, or disciplinary action against the Chief Executive or Treasurer.
- 3.4.21. No disciplinary action in respect of the Chief Executive or Treasurer, except suspension of the officer for the purpose of investigating the alleged misconduct occasioning the action, may be taken by the Police and Crime Commissioner without having due regard to a recommendation in a report made by an independent person. Any such suspension must be on full pay.
- 3.4.22. "disciplinary action" means any action occasioned by alleged misconduct which, if proved, would, according to the usual practice of the Police and Crime Commissioner, be recorded on the member of staff's personal file, and includes any proposal for dismissal of a member of staff for any reason other than redundancy, permanent ill-health or infirmity of mind or body, but does not include failure to renew a contract of employment for a fixed term unless the authority has undertaken to renew such a contract; and "designated independent person" must be such person as may be agreed between the Police and Crime Commissioner and the relevant officer
- 3.4.23. To make recommendations to the Police and Crime Commissioner with regard to staff terms and conditions of service, in consultation with the Treasurer.
- 3.4.24. To undertake the management of staff employed by the Police and Crime Commissioner in line with agreed policies and procedures.
- 3.4.25. To authorise, in line with staff conditions of service, the suspension of any member of staff employed by the Police and Crime Commissioner.
- 3.4.26. To bring national agreements on salaries, wages and conditions into effect, providing that any issues which are sensitive or have major financial implications will be referred to the Police and Crime Commissioner for a decision.
- 3.4.27. To approve payments under any bonus or performance-related payment schemes for staff approved by the Police and Crime Commissioner, honoraria payments made for taking on extra duties and responsibilities, or similar special payments.
- 3.4.28. To negotiate with, and reach agreements with, recognised trade unions and staff associations on any matters that can be decided locally. All agreements reached must be reported to the Police and Crime Commissioner.
- 3.4.29. To grant essential or casual car-user allowances.
- 3.4.30. To approve the retirement of staff on the grounds of ill health, and the payment of ordinary and ill-health pensions and other payments, as appropriate, following advice from a medical practitioner. The Police and Crime Commissioner must be made aware of any ill-health retirements from his office at the earliest convenience.

- 3.4.31. Settlement of employment tribunal cases and grievances of staff employed by the Police and Crime Commissioner with the exception of those cases felt to be exceptional because:
- they involve a high profile claimant
 - there is a particular public interest in the case
 - there is a real risk that the Police and Crime Commissioner or Chief Constable will be exposed to serious public criticism or serious weaknesses in the organisation or policies and procedures will be revealed.
- 3.4.32. To settle appeals against decisions of the Senior Administrator of the Local Government Pension Scheme, in line with the Occupational Pension Schemes (Internal Dispute Resolution Procedures) Regulations 1996.
- 3.4.33. To appoint Independent Custody Visitors and other volunteers and terminate appointments if necessary.

Legal

- 3.4.34. To affix or authorise the affixing of the common seal of the Police and Crime Commissioner to:
- all contracts, agreements or transactions in respect of which there is nominal or no consideration
 - all deeds which grant or convey an interest in land
 - all documents where it is determined by the Police and Crime Commissioner's nominated legal adviser that there is a need for the seal to be affixed.
- 3.4.35. To approve the financial settlement of all claims or requests for compensation against the Police and Crime Commissioner in accordance with financial regulations and against the Chief Constable in accordance with paragraph 8 of Schedule 2 Police Reform and Social Responsibility Act 2011 and s.88 of the Police Act 1996.
- 3.4.36. To approve all requests for financial assistance to officers and staff involved in legal proceedings or inquests except those felt to be significant because:-
- they involve a high profile claimant
 - there is a particular public interest in the case
 - there is a real risk that the Police and Crime Commissioner or Chief Constable will be exposed to serious public criticism or serious weaknesses in the organisation or policies and procedures will be revealed.
 - the proceedings are by their nature considered to be a test case before the court
- 3.4.38. To authorise, after consultation with the Chief Constable, the institution, defence, withdrawal or settlement of any claims or legal proceedings on the Police and Crime Commissioner's behalf, including the completion of necessary documentation in pursuance of court orders, directions and or procedural rules, in consultation with the Police and Crime Commissioner's nominated legal adviser (and Treasurer if there are significant financial implications).
- 3.4.39. To arrange for the provision of all legal or other expert advice and/or representation required for and on behalf of the Police and Crime Commissioner.

3.5 Functions delegated to the Treasurer

- 3.5.1 The Treasurer, as the financial adviser to the Police and Crime Commissioner has a statutory responsibility to manage the Commissioner's financial affairs as set out in sections 112 and 114 of the Local Government Finance Act 1988, and the Accounts and Audit Regulations 2003 (as amended).
- 3.5.2 The detailed financial management responsibilities of the Treasurer are set out in the financial regulations.
- 3.5.3 The Deputy S.151 role for the Police and Crime Commissioner is delegated to the Director of Finance in the Force, during periods of absence. Any potential conflicts of interest are to be managed under the CIPFA Standard of Professional Practice on Ethics.
- 3.5.4 To sign contracts on behalf of the Police and Crime Commissioner, irrespective of value, once they have been approved in accordance with this Corporate Governance Framework, except those which are required to be executed under the common seal of the Police and Crime Commissioner; in such cases the Chief Executive is authorised to sign and affix the seal

3.6 Functions delegated to the Director of Finance

- 3.6.1 To sign contracts on behalf of the Police and Crime Commissioner, irrespective of value, once they have been approved in accordance with this Corporate Governance Framework, except those which are required to be executed under the common seal of the Police and Crime Commissioner; in such cases the Chief Executive is authorised to sign and affix the seal.
- 3.6.2 To undertake the day to day management of procurement in accordance with the financial and contract regulations.
- 3.6.3 The detailed financial management responsibilities of the Director of Finance are set out in the financial regulations.
