Local Briefings

No	Summary	Action
2/05/07/2022	Nuneaton <ul style="list-style-type: none">A discussion took place on the incidents that have occurred recently and concerns from the residents. The CC reassured the PCC that measures are being put in place to resolve these issues.

3/05/07/2022	Southam Police Station <ul style="list-style-type: none"> CC advised the PCC that a planning application has been submitted to Southam Police Station some matters have been raise for clarification. Our conditional contract of sale expires of 26th October.
4/05/07/2022	Policing Demand <ul style="list-style-type: none"> A discussion took place regarding the recent high demand the force are experiencing, some of which should be directed at other emergency services such as Ambulance. In order to decrease the demand, partnership work is needed. CC explained that the force respond immediately when there is a threat to life and when a crime is taking place at that moment and this will take precedence over an unsourced incident. PCC's view is that as all crimes/incidents taken place should be treated with a police response no matter the severity of the crime. CC agreed and the solution is the new policing model as it will have different departments to respond to different incidents e.g investigations unit
5/05/07/2022	Single Online Home <ul style="list-style-type: none"> A discussion took place regarding the benefits of the online portal for reporting non-emergency crime online. This is having an effect on the abandonment rate for 101 calls.
6/05/07/2022	Engagement Seminars <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Both CC and the PCC agreed the seminars have been successful with good Q&A sessions
7/05/07/2022	Vetting <ul style="list-style-type: none"> CC advised that it would be beneficial for a member of the OPCC to attend the vetting board to feedback to the PCC. SA will look at attending
8/05/07/2022	Casework <ul style="list-style-type: none"> A discussion took place around persistent emailers
